BIG FIRES IN LONDON.

A Number of Buildings Completely Destroyed.

LOSS NEARLY HALF A MILLION.

While One Conflagration Is Raging Another One Breaks Out in a Different Part of the City—Fire Losses Elsewhere.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a terrific conflagration broke out on Queen Victoria and Thames streets, intersecting thoroughfares in the great business quarter of the city. A large number of warehouses were on fire. A high wind which prevailed rendered futile the efforts of the firemen to prevent the spread of the flames or even keep the raging element under any sort of control.

A large paper warehouse, a number of fancy goods stores, and the Gulcher engineering works, and the great furemporium of Revillon Freers, were next reached and entirely destroyed.

Twenty-nine engines were called into use and, the wind subsiding, the fire was got under control, but not until it had greatly damaged St. Benet's church.

The phenomenally cold weather greatly hampered the efforts of the firemen, the water freezing in the engines, and many of the men having their hands and other parts of their bodies frozen. The hosemen had to be lashed to the ladders, their hands being so benumbed that they could not grasp the supports.

The total loss is placed at $400,000. The heaviest individual loss is that of Revillon Freers, the wholesale furriers. They had just imported a stock of sealskins valued at $100,000.

Later estimates place the loss to Revillon Freers at $200,000. Their stock of furs was valued at $250,000. Half the stock was totally destroyed, and the remainder damaged.

While a large portion of the fire brigade was occupied in battling with the fire in Queen Victoria street, another serious conflagration was raging in the suburb of Hackney, sixteen engines being engaged in the attempts to subdue it. The property destroyed in this locality was the works of Carless, Capel & Leonard, benzoline refiners and naphtha distillers. There were 16,000 gallons of spirits stored in vaults underneath the buildings, and while the fire was in progress several of these exploded with great force, injuring a number of persons, and terrorizing the population of the vicinity. The shock of the explosion was plainly felt at points in London, five miles distant. The works were entirely destroyed, together with some of the adjacent buildings. The loss is very heavy.

Town Almost Wiped Out.

LEWIS, Del., Dec. 31.—A disastrous fire broke out at Milton, Del., at 3:30 o'clock yesterday, which resulted in the destruction of the principal business portion of the town. The losses are as follows: Burton and Parker, general store, loss, $15,000; insurance $5,000; W. H. Fox, loss $5,000; insurance $3,000; S. J. Wilson, undertaker, loss $3,000; insurance $1,000; Willey and Virden, butchers, loss $500; no insurance; postoffice building destroyed, no loss on contents.

Several other buildings and small stores, without insurance on their stock, were burned. The total loss is about $30,000, probably half covered by insurance. The fire originated in Burton & Parker's store, probably from a defective stove or flue.

Court House Burned.

MARYSVILLE, Kan., Dec. 31.—The Marshall county court house was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The more valuable records are in a fire-proof safe, and it is thought they are not injured. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $15,000. The fire, it is thought, was the work of an incendiary.

Grocery and Saloon Robbed.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 31.—Last night while Herman Fetterer, owner of a grocery and saloon at the corner of Howard and Twenty-fifth streets, was shaking dice in the rear of the store with a man named Burke, two masked men entered, and covering Fetterer and Burke with revolvers, demanded the money in the store. Fetterer ran into an adjoining room to get a revolver, but was met by two other robbers who also carried revolvers. The robbers secured about $100 in money, a gold watch and other articles of value. As the robbers left the store Fetterer fired a shot at them, which the burglars returned, but neither took effect. The police have not yet located the robbers.

Into an Open Switch.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Dec. 31.—Last night an ice train of sixteen cars and caboose coming down from Hot Spring was wrecked by running into an open switch into the yards at this place. A. K. Nones, general manager of the Las Vegas Ice company was instantly killed, and a fireman named Garrett was slightly injured. Mr. Nones came here two years ago from Louisville, Ky. His death is peculiarly from the fact that he was soon to have been married to a lady of this city.

Temporary Assignment.

LIMA, O., Dec. 31.—The firm of W. H. Hay & Company, grocers, made an assignment to E. C. Eastman, attorney. They were embarrassed by being surety for a considerable amount for W. H. Henderson, of Harrod. The assignee states that the assignment will only be temporary.

King Kalakua Will Soon Return.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—King Kalakua will return to Honolulu on the United States flagship Charleston, during the first week in January. His health has been much improved since he arrived here.

FALLING WALLS.

Two Men Killed and Several Injured by a Falling Building.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The big brewery of Herman Koehler, occupying the whole block at First avenue between Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth streets, was the scene yesterday afternoon of a most disastrous calamity. The building was in course of reconstruction, and the roof and south wall fell, burying thirty men in the wreck.

The firemen soon succeeded in extricating all the workmen from the ruins. Of the forty who were at work twelve were injured, one of whom died at the hospital later in the afternoon. No one was killed outright. The list of dead and injured is as follows:

Dead:

James Durneen, aged 33 years, had skull fractured and died shortly after reaching the hospital.

Lewis Weber, aged 19, contusions; fatally injured. Died in the hospital late last evening.

The injured are: A. Ackerman, aged 45, contusions of head and body; S. Bruenlinger, 28, Rudolph Dorn, 33, Cooper Ebley, —, Thomas Dahey, 16, John Fully, 22, all received contusions; John Hayes, 22, internal injuries; Thos. Heath, 55, scalp wound; Peter Hendrich, 17, back injured.

Three foremen of the gangs of workmen have been placed under arrest, charged with being criminally responsible for the accident. They are Joseph Turner, foreman of the bricklayers and masons; William Williams, foreman of the house-smiths, and Adam Ackerman, foreman of the joiners. Turner and Williams are locked up, while Ackerman, who is among the injured, is under guard at Bellevue hospital.

The accident was apparently caused by the carelessness of the builders in furnishing supports which proved too weak for the work demanded of them.

Killed With a Fence Rail.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 31.—Thomas Farmer and Ellis Brown, citizens residing near Sales' Mills, in this county, became involved in a quarrel over family affairs Monday morning, when the former was killed with a fence rail by Brown. Both men became very angry, when Farmer drew a knife upon his opponent, who seized a rail and struck Farmer to the ground with it. Farmer arose and followed Brown, who struck him a second blow, knocking him down and inflicting fatal internal injuries, from which he died almost instantly. Brown made his escape and is still at large.

James R. Garfield Married.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—James R. Garfield, the second son of the late President Garfield, last night became the husband of Helen Newell, daughter of President John Newell of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad. The ceremony, which was strictly private was solemnized at 8 o'clock in President Newell's mansion on Ontario street. Right Rev. Bishop McLaren, of the Episcopal diocese of Chicago, officiated. After the wedding supper there was a brilliant reception for which nearly 500 invitations were issued.

Arrested for Murder After Thirty Years.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Dec. 31.—Henry Lutz, aged 82 years, was yesterday arrested at Illick's mills, near here, for murder committed in Germany thirty years ago. Sometime ago a man died in Germany, and on his death bed he confessed that Lutz had murdered a whole family and that he had assisted in the butchery. He was a nomad and made his home anywhere. Lutz was traced and arrested and is now on his way to Germany.

Car Heater Explodes.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 31.—A serious accident occurred in the car department at the Columbus Pan-Handle shops, in which two men, Thomas Burrows and Elijah Clark, were badly injured. A heating device, known as the Baker heater, was being tested, with a view of possible future use, when it exploded from the steam. The explosion was a severe one, tearing out the rear end of the car and throwing the fragments all around.

Two Polish Laborers Killed.

BUFFALO, Dec. 31.—Three unknown Polish laborers, apparently returning from their day's work, and walking on the New York Central railroad tracks in this city at 3 o'clock last night, in stepping out of the way of an approaching engine, walked in front of the fast mail train coming out of the city and all were struck and instantly killed, their bodies being so terribly mangled that they were scarcely recognizable.

Newsboy Fatally Stabbed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Daniel Jordan, a 13-year-old newsboy, stabbed Meyer Weiss, another newsboy 14 years old, in the side, near the Brooklyn bridge, yesterday afternoon. The stabbing occurred during a squabble over some papers. Weiss was taken to the hospital. His wound is probably fatal. A number of newsboys marched Jordan to the City Hall police station, where he was locked up.

Wants Damages.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Alexander S. Phillipsen, who was detained at the barge office sometime since, on the suspicion that he was the Copenhagen murderer of that name who had shipped his victim to this country in a barrel of cement has sued Collector Erhardt and John Simpson for $50,000 for false arrest and imprisonment. The real Phillipsen is in a madhouse in Copenhagen.

Attempt to Wreck a Train.

PARIS, Tex., Dec. 31.—An attempt was made to wreck the northbound Frisco passenger train between this city and Arthur last night. Some miscreant placed a tie on the track and the train struck it while running at a speed of forty miles an hour. It was too large for the cowcatcher to get above it, and it slid along the track until the train was stopped.

GEN. MILES' REPORT.

An Account of the Indian Battle on Porcupine Creek

SENT TO ARMY HEADQUARTERS.

He States That There Was Ninety-two Indians Killed and But Few Left Alive. Indian Agent Royer Reports That There Were Three Hundred Indians Killed. Medical Director Bache's Report—Col. Forsythe Arrives at Pine Ridge Agency.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Maj. Gen. Schofield has received the following telegram from Gen. Miles, dated at Hermosa, S. Dak., Dec 30:

"Col. Forsythe says sixty-two dead Indian men were counted on the plain where the attempt was made to disarm Big Foot's band, and where the fight began on other parts of the ground were eighteen men. These do not include those killed in ravines where dead warriors were seen but not counted. Six were brought in badly wounded, and six others were with a party of twenty-three men and women which Capt. Jackson had to abandon when attacked by about 150 Brule Indians from the agency.

"This accounts" comments Gen. Brooke "for ninety-two men killed, and leaves but few alive and unhurt. The women and children broke for the hills when the fighting commenced, and comparatively few of them were hurt and few brought in. Thirty-nine Arapahoe, of which number twenty-one are wounded. Had it not been for the attacks by the Brules, an accurate account would have been made, but the ravines were not searched afterwards. I think this shows very little apprehension from Big Foot's band in the future. A party of forty is reported as held by the scouts at the head of Mexican creek. These consist of all sizes, and the cavalry from Rosebud will bring them in if it is true."

"The Indians," says Gen. Miles, "under Big Foot were among the most desperate. There were thirty-eight of the remainder of the Cheyenne river Indians and thirty that broke away from Hump's following when he took his band and the Sitting Bull Indians to Fort Bennett making in all nearly 160 warriors. Before leaving their camps on the Cheyenne river they cut their harness, mutilated their wagons and started south for the Bad Lands, evidently not intending to return, but to go to war. Troops were placed between them and the Bad Lands, and they never succeeded in joining the hostiles there. All their movements were intercepted, and their severe loss at the hands of the Seventh cavalry may be a wholesome lesson to the other Sioux."

INDIAN AGENT ROYER'S REPORT.

He Says That Three Hundred Indians Were Killed in the Battle.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Additional information concerning the battle between government troops and insurgent Indians was received at the Indian bureau from Indian Agent Royer, of Pine Ridge Agency, who telegraphed to Commissioner Morgan as follows:

"On Wounded Knee Creek, Monday morning, while the soldiers were disarming Big Foot and his band, after their surrender, a fight took place, which resulted in the killing of about 300 Indians and several of the soldiers, including Capt. Wallace, with a number wounded. Two Strike and his party, who were on White Clay creek, just below Red Cloud's house, opened fire on the agency from the hilltops opposite the boarding school, wounding two soldiers. The police opened fire, killing two of Two Strike's Indians, and wounding others. Two Strike and his band have retreated in a northwesterly direction from the agency, and it is supposed he is trying to make his way back to the Bad Lands. Thus far the Pine Ridge Indians have taken no active part in the matter. Big Foot, Kicking Bear, and Two Strike and his band have been and are taking an active part in the disturbance."

Commissioner Morgan sent the dispatch to Secretary Noble, who immediately took it to the president.

Medical Director Bache's Report.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Medical Director Bache telegraphs Surgeon General Sutherland from Pine Ridge agency under date of Dec. 30, as follows:

"I report that during an engagement with Indians yesterday, fifteen miles from here, and during a desultory fire on this agency, the following casualties: Capt Wallace, twenty-five men Seventh cavalry and one Indian scout killed; Lieut. Garlington, Seventh cavalry, Lieut. Hawthorne, Second artillery, and thirty-eight men wounded. This includes two men of second infantry. Many wounds are severe. Hospital Steward Pollock killed. Have also about thirty wounded Indians, men, women and children.

Col. Forsythe Reaches Pine Ridge.

OMAHA, Dec. 31. Col. Forsythe reached Pine Ridge agency yesterday with the Seventh cavalry and the surviving prisoners. He reports twenty-five of his men killed and thirty-four wounded in the fight on the Porcupine Monday. Gen. Brooke has since the fight revoked his order for trains to carry prisoners south under guard. There is only a remnant left.

Gen. Miles' Report Is Sufficient.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31. The president, Secretary Proctor and Gen. Schofield held a conference yesterday on the Indian situation. It was agreed that the general instructions under which Gen. Miles is acting were sufficiently clear and broad and that any additional instructions from him

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 31.—Gen. Spinner is sinking rapidly. There has been a marked change in his condition in the past twenty four hours and the end cannot be far off.

WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

Some Valuable Information Obtained by the Bureau of American Republics.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The bureau of the American republics furnishes an extract from an editorial in El Imparcial, a newspaper of Madrid, which, while opposing the establishment between Spain and the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico, of a system of coastwise trade, shows that American flour could be imported into Spain direct from the United States, and then reimported into Cuba or Porto Rico as Spanish flour, and yield large profit to the reimporters.

American flour has to pay in Cuba, says El Imparcial, a duty of $7.04 per barrel of one hundred kilograms, which reduced to Spanish money make thirty-five pesetas and twenty centimes. Now the same flour taken from the United States to Spain pays there only eight pesetas and twenty-five centimes. The difference named, twenty-six pesetas and ninety-five centimes, $5.90, would, if the coastwise trade system should now be established, not only cover the double freight and expenses, but also allow a large profit to be derived from this trade.

The bureau of American republics has information that the president of Mexico has approved the bill recently passed by the congress of that republic, admitting corn from the United States free of duty. This is a very large concession, as the duty heretofore has been one cent per kilogram, or about one-half cent per pound.

The bureau has also information from the republic of Mexico concerning the proposed establishment of the first perfumery laboratory in that republic, the proprietor being a New York man. Most of the perfumery used throughout the world is made in Southern France, but recent investigation has shown remarkable facilities for the manufacture of this article in Mexico and the neighboring republics.

Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—In the senate Mr. Hoar continued his speech in favor of the elections bill.

Mr. Wolcott, Republican, addressed the senate in opposition to it.

The financial bill was taken up informally, and Messrs. Stewart and Reagan spoke against it.

The discussion of the elections bill was resumed and Mr. Teller, Republican, spoke against it and against the proposed change in the rules.

Mr. Hale and others urged the necessity of disposing of the bill immediately.

The house adjourned to Friday without transacting any business.

Fate of the Election Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—During the holiday season there has been much speculation over the possible fate of the election bill in the house of representatives if it should pass the senate. A leading Republican member, who was an advocate of the bill in the house, ventured the opinion yesterday that the bill could not get through the house again, and if any amendments were made in the senate rendering a new consideration necessary in the house, the Republican members who were opposed to the bill when it was considered in the house, are quite confident that it will not go to the president.

Postoffice Robbers Arrested.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Chief Postoffice Inspector Rathbone has received a dispatch from Inspector Sharp, at Chattanooga, Tenn., stating that Mike McCullom and John Moore were arrested yesterday for robbing the postoffice at Soddy, Tenn., on Sept. 15. The arrest of Joe Rogers, another of the party, is expected to-day. The chief inspector has also received a dispatch from Inspector Wheeler, at New York, announcing the arrest of Fred. H. Worth, a clerk at Station F, Brooklyn, for rifling registered letters. Worth made a full confession.

Nominations Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The senate yesterday in secret session confirmed the nominations of John B. Jackson of New Jersey, as second secretary of legation at Berlin; John Cunningham, postmaster at Salem, Ill., and Col. Chas. Sutherland, surgeon general, United States army.

Full Fledged Justice Now.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The president has signed the commission of Henry B. Brown, of Michigan, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States.

FURNACES TO CLOSE DOWN.

Prospects of Ten Thousand Men on Being Out of Employment.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 31.—The furnace proprietors in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys held an important meeting in Youngstown, O., yesterday and resolved that on Jan. 10 they will shut down their furnaces indefinitely. Twenty-three furnaces were represented. The operators claim that owing to the high railroad tariffs and the great cost of coke they are unable to continue work except at a heavy loss.

The coke operators reduced the price of coke twenty-five cents per ton, hoping to assist the furnacemen, but the latter insisted upon a greater reduction which the coke manufacturers claim they can not concede.

The shut-down will shut at least 8,000 men out of employment in the two valleys and seriously effect the freight traffic of the railroad lines.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31. Chief of Police Marsh feels confident that in the two desperadoes under arrest, he has the men who perpetrated the Allerton robbery and who knocked down and robbed an old man a week or so ago near the stock yards. The description given by Allerton's messenger and by the old man of the men who attacked them as "Feather Top," alias Henry and Bennet," said the chief yesterday, and we are in hopes that we have the gang locked up. All the thieves will be arraigned before a justice of the peace to-day.

OHIO STATE NEWS.

Items Gathered Especially For Buckeye Readers.

GREAT WEALTH IN OHIO OIL.

The Standard Has the Fullest Confidence in It as Evidenced by the Amount of Capital Invested Extensive Railroad Building Within the State—Other State Dispatches.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 31.—The energy and shrewdness with which the Standard Oil company is managed is proverbial, yet few persons not directly affected by its operations realize how remarkably rapid is the growth of this immense trust.

The expansion of the stock of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, of this city, an organization of Standard oil men, from $100,000 to $6,000,000, which has just occurred, is but one striking instance of the way this vast concern rolls up wealth. The Buckeye Pipe Line company was organized shortly after the opening up of the Ohio oil fields. Its purpose was to pipe Ohio crude oil to various points for refining or for use as fuel.

It began in a small way with only $100,000 capital stock. As the Ohio field developed its business rapidly increased and its profits also. To-day it owns 1,200 miles of pipe line and its tankage is estimated by well informed oil men at not less than $3,000,000. All told its property is worth $8,000,000 or more and its semi-annual dividends are between three and four times the capital with which it started not ten years ago.

This is almost a miracle of growth in wealth, yet it fairly indicates the immense amount of money that has been put into the Ohio and Indiana oil fields by the Standard company and the large returns received from it. This Buckeye Pipe Line company is one of the many corporations controlled by the Standard.

It has lines running from the Ohio fields to this city, from Lima to Whiting, Ind., a town not far from Chicago, where the Standard is building what is said to be the largest refinery in the world, besides numerous feeders running to various points in the field. It is now building into the northern Indiana field, where the Standard has been buying large tracts of land.

This field, which seems to center about Lagrange and Elkhart counties, has not been developed very fully as yet, but is, doubtless, rich, as Standard agents several weeks ago bought hundreds of acres of land in those two counties at a comparatively low price, the owners having no suspicion of the purpose for which it was bought, nor the value to which it will doubtless rise when developed. Gas and oil wells will be put down at once in that territory, and the Standard people expect very large returns on their investments.

Speaking of Whiting and these Indiana fields naturally leads to a mention of the immense plant the Standard is operating in that Indiana town. The Standard people here, as usual, are very close mouthed about it, but your correspondent has learned from reliable sources that this Whiting plant is to be larger than any of the great refineries in the east.

It covers 200 acres of ground and eighty immense stills are either built or in process of construction. The Buckeye Pipe line carries Ohio oil to these works, having two lines running to them. The heavy Ohio oil is rich in benzine and many of the by-products of petroleum, and the Standard is making special arrangements for refining it with this in view.

If the past shrewdness of the Standard management counts for anything, it is safe to predict that the trust magnates see big profits in the Ohio oil. They now control fully two-thirds of the Ohio field and own about three-fourths of all the oil above ground in the state and are in a position where they can squeeze any one who is rash enough to attempt to compete with them.

The expansion of the Buckeye Pipe Line company's stock is one of the proofs of the value of the Ohio product; the output of the Whiting refinery will doubtless be a still greater and absolutely conclusive one, but one which the Standard people are certain to keep very closely to themselves.

Track Laying in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 31.—There were 224 miles of new track laid on thirteen roads in Ohio during 1890. Only eight states show a greater extent of new mileage. Ohio leads the central northern states, Michigan showing but 145 miles of new track on eight roads. Indiana 113 miles on ten roads, Illinois 151 miles on ten roads, and Wisconsin 169 miles on seven roads. There were 6,081 miles of new track laid on 337 roads in the various states and territories during the year. The construction of the past year has only been exceeded seven times during the past twenty years, and it was exceeded by the record of three of those years, 1890, 1887 and 1888, by only a few hundred miles.

The average construction for the past twenty years has been 5,500 miles annually, therefore the year just closing has made a record considerably above the average and will increase the total mileage of the country to more than 167,000 miles. While notable extensions have been made during the year, especially in the northwest south and southwest, a careful analysis of the total mileage shows that most of the additions have been connecting links and spurs rendered necessary by the increasing traffic of existing lines. This in some measure is indicated by the 337 lines shown, giving an average mileage for each of only eighteen miles.

A Schooner Capsizes With Eight Men on Board.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 31.—The schooner A. D. Lamson, which arrived here yesterday, brought Charles Wallenberger, the sole survivor of the crew of the schooner Lucinda C. Potter, from Boston, for Norfolk, which consisted of eight men. The Potter capsized Sunday noon off Barnegat and five men drowned. The captain and the two remaining sailors gained a lodgment on a portion of the vessel's hull, but two of them, one the captain, died from exposure.

When the Lamson found the wreck Sunday night and sent a boat to take off the men, the captain was still alive, but died half an hour after being taken on board the rescuing vessel. Wallenberger was scarcely more than alive, but soon got over the effects of his exposure.

Shot One of His Former Employes.

TIONESTA, Pa., Dec. 31.—At Clarington, this county, yesterday Edward S. Shippen, member of the firm of Shippen Brothers, lumber dealers, shot and instantly killed S. W. Say, one of the employes of the firm. Bad blood was engendered by Say coming to work late and being sharply reprimanded by Mr. Shippen. Say worked till noon and then went to the firm's office and demanded his money. In settling accounts the dispute was renewed, during which the murdered man struck Shippen. Mr. Shippen claims the shooting was done in self-defence, and that he only fired when he thought his life was in danger. Shippen is in jail. Say leaves a widow and a family of small children.

The unfortunate woman was transferred in a beach wagon, in which there was nothing resembling a bed. The distance is twenty-eight miles, and as the woman had little protection from the cold both legs were frozen before she reached the hospital and she was in a dying condition. She died yesterday. Coroner Mix will make an investigation.

A FEATURE of Thursday's STAR will be a symposium of views on what are likely to be the most notable local events of the coming year. The STAR sent out inquiries to a number of prominent citizens and the replies have been very courteous and quite general. Tomorrow's STAR will contain these replies. That they will prove an interesting bit of reading there is not the least doubt.

THE LOCAL LIME KILN CLUB.

The Regular Weekly Meeting of the Quinn Chapel Debating Society a "Howling" Success.

A good sized audience of white folks individually dropped their nickel in the slot at the little Quinn Chapel church Tuesday evening and took in the regular weekly meeting of the colored debating society, whose programs have been found to be delectable revelations in oratory and literary highflying. There was some disappointment, however, as the audience had been led to anticipate a discussion of the popular social question, "Resolved, that an antiquated gun without a lock is more beneficial to man than a decrepit dog whose molars have been extracted by the cycle of time and tough meat." For some reason this subject had been supplemented by one more modern.

It was eight o'clock when President Wayback Jack McMichaels called the society to order with his little chestnut bell and the exercises were opened. The subject for debate was announced, being a resolution, "That acoholic spirits were not subservient to the best interests of the United States of America," or, in other words, that whisky was a detriment to the country.

President McMichaels took the affirmative of the question and elucidated to some length. He was followed by Funnimore Shorty Cooper, who stood in with whisky and defended it with much ability, until the president's chestnut bell rang him off. Captain David Gethere Archer was also one of the exponents of whisky, and made many strong points, which were very aptly applied. We are unable to give a stenographic report of Mr. Archer's remarks, and his final declaration, a somewhat modified quotation from Patrick Henry,s historical remark—"Give me whisky or give me death"—may have been misinterpreted. Shorty Copper was allowed another brief speech on the subject, which was able, succinct and to the point. But the judges went against Cooper and Archer and decided in favor of the affirmative. The reason for this was a possible prejudice in favor of the question, or it may have been that Charles Adonis Wheatly's actions in suspiciously taking Cooper out to see a man had a wrong influence in the matter.

After the debate had subsided the literary and musical part of the program was proceeded with, which was most acceptably rendered and held the audience spell-bound. Mr. Archer was again a conspicuous figure, and he was allowed to sing the whole of a comic song entitled "Prehaps," or something like that, written by the author of that beautiful and well-know poem entitled "Monkey, monkey, bottle of beer," etc.

Among the other musical features was a plantation melody by Cooper, Bray, Wheatly and others, and the audience stood an encore without any signs of hostility.

The society is in the height of prosperity, flourishing like a green bay tree. President McMichaels is an atuocratic ruler, and never entertains a motion to adjourn until the proper time, literally sitting upon Cooper and Wheatly.

The Coming Attraction.

The Washington Journal of Nov. 19th, 1890, has the following to say of the company that will appear at Music Hall next Monday evening: The operatic burlesque of Faust, as presented last night at the opera house, was very pleasant performance and free from any of the objectionable features that are introduced into plays of that kind. The company is large, having about 30 members, of whom 20 are attractive young women, very much under the age of the traditional ballet or chorus girl. There are very good voices in the company, but more pretty faces. Miss May Duryea, who takes the part of Marguerite, and Miss Victoria Castellan, who appears as Martha, have voices that have already done credit to their possessers in grand opera. Faust, Siebel, Mephistopheles, Valentine and Brander, the other principal roles, were gracefully and ably sustained, respectively, by Miss Nellie Mackey, E. H. Sweer, Chas. Osborne, Miss Maud Wilmot, and Happy Dick Turner.

A Happy New Year.

To all my patrons, old and young,
A Happy New Year for '91.
May you live a life of pleasure,
Without mixture, without measure.
BOARD OF TRADE

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Flocken's Drug Store.

THE CLOSE OF THE TERM.

Common Pleas Court Disposes of a Few Cases Before Its Final Adjournment.

In the case of Jacob Lieber against Mary J. Hardy and others the court rendered a decision quieting the title in the Centennial block property as prayed for in the petition.

The case of M. Koch and others against Robert Hopkins, a suit brought to force a contribution on Treasurer Dickson's bonds, to the amount of $2,000, with interest at 6 per cent. from October 6th last, a judgment of half the amount, $1,000, with interest, was rendered.

Two divorce cases were heard and continued, being those of Alice V. Clark against Henry N. Clark, and Alice Thomasson against John Thomasson. In both cases the defendants were ordered to pay $50 alimony, pending the suit.

In the case of the Northwestern Life Insurance Co. against Samuel Ulsh, the sale of the Ulsh farm, which was purchased some time since by George Roberts for $5700, was set aside. Other parties had offered $6300 for the property if this was done.

The case of A. B. McKinley, who is under an indictment for assault and battery, was continued until the next term, and defendant required to give bonds of $500, which were furnished.

Court adjourned Tuesday without day. The next term will be opened February 23.

New Year's Number.

Very dainty and graceful in design is the cover of The Double New Year's Number of "The Youth's Companion," in its shades of red and brown. Inside we find a new serial story, entitled "Kent Hempdem," by that delightful writer, Rebecca Harding Davis, and in addition are five short stories, well illustrated, besides poems and articles of popular information to suit all tastes and ages. A notable article by Professor Shaler, of Harvard University, on the Earth, is the first in a series of articles on Recent Discoveries in Science, to be written by the most eminent living scientists. Reading such a number as this, it is easy to understand why "The Companion" has gained the largest circulation of any weekly paper in the world. All its stories appeal in the widest way to human sympathy, and are calculated to please not only young people, but their elders as well. That such a paper, so beautifully illustrated, and written by the most eminent of living authors, can be sold for $1.75 a year, is really marvelous.

Returned.

I placed on her sweet mouth a kiss
As we stood 'neath the sycamore tree;
My heart it ran over with bliss
As she shyly returned it to me.

I placed on her finger a ring,
As we stood 'neath the sycamore tree;
Now it's winter, and then it was spring—
And she's also returned that to me.
—J. W. W. in Life.

An Exception.

She—For my part, I like to strive for a thing and win it, and not have it drop in my lap. Don't you agree with me, Mr. Dobson?

He—Yeees, unless it is the girl I am courting.—Mansey's Weekly.

Hopeful.

"And are you really engaged to young Charlie Quibble? Why, he's nothing but a poor lawyer!"

"Well, he won't be long, if he pleads every suit as successfully as he has his own."—Puck.

An Advertisement.

My lady will not let me call her "Love,"
Although she is my love, I love her so;
Therefore wants all gentle souls thereof,
And but them when they read my verses, know
That I write "Lady" where "Love" ought to be,
And "Love" is meant when I say simply "she."
—George Pellew in Life.

On the Landing.

Penelope—Don't! Stop!
Jack—I can't help it (kisses her).
Penelope—How dare you, when I forbid it?
Jack—You merely said, "Don't stop."—Life.

Presumption.

Miss Busser (on receiving her first kiss)—I'm surprised at your audacity, sir.

Mr. Brave (giving her another)—I'm a little bit surprised at it myself; but I guess it's all right.—Puck.

Blissfulness.

Once a Miss who would like to be Mrs.
Asked her beau what he thought perfect bliss;
He seized the plump Miss
And gave her a kiss,
And he fondly exclaimed, "I think this."
—New York Herald.

An Untimely Visit.

Caller—Is the editor in?

Editor (rising to a height of 6 ft. 4 in.)—He is.

Caller—Ah! I'll come some time when he's out.—Epoch.

She Did and She Didn't.

Mabel—I don't agree with you at all, Algernon. On the contrary, my dear, you agree with me better than anything else in the world.—Boston Courier.

Remarkable Facts.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Emma Hatch, of Fairfield, Ia., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Oswego, N. Y., were cured after suffering 20 years. C. L. Bodger, druggist at San Jose, Cal., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure has cured the latter. Another wonderful cure is that of Levi Logan, of Buchanan, Mich., who had heart disease for 30 years, and four bottles made him feel like a new man. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by Denison & Co., Holeman & Co. Book of wonderful cures and testimonials free.

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. ILL FIND YOU OUT!

A Tale of Suffering.

A tale of [illegible] comes to us from the [illegible] of Ohio. It was at a [illegible] and a young man, a victim to Pulmonary Consumption, before whom all women go down and who cannot help "playing" when he is near a pretty girl, was at his usual occupation—devoted to several of them at once. He counted, in fact, this time four victims to his attractions. As two, however, were at the hotel on the beach and the other pair in separate cottages in different directions, he had managed to make all happy without any clashing.

Just before the season closed, however, the fair cottagers went with their parents to pass a few days at the hotel en route to their city homes. Four sweethearts under one roof were too much for even this clever campaigner. He concluded that the situation was too complicated for him, and a prompt departure was arranged for. The evening he left he managed to see each girl separately and to murmur in her ear a tender tale of love. He would take no decided answer then, but if his affection was returned he begged her to wear at breakfast the next morning a red rose which he gently pressed upon her. The last interview took place about 11 p. m., and the midnight train bore the young scamp to New York.

At the first meal on the following day four young women appeared in the dining room with red roses thrust in their belts. The gay cavalier not presenting himself the girls after a time began to compare notes, and all that worries those deceived damsels is to know whether their joint lover had any means to discover how many of his roses were worn at the breakfast table.—Her Point of View in New York Times.

A Duck Hunter's Adventure.

Martin Boland, of North Lyme, had an exciting experience while duck shooting Monday, and thanks his lucky stars every morning for the fact that he is still in the land of the living. He had been about the mouth of Lord's cove nearly all the day and had met with fair success, and had loaded his decoys into his small duck boat, intending to start home. Just then he heard the loud "honk" of wild geese, and a moment later saw a flock of some twenty of these waterfowl settle in the river about half way from shore to shore.

He resolved to have one of these geese on his string, and attempted to scull near enough to get a shot. He kept his eyes on the birds, and consequently did not see a huge cake of ice that was bearing down upon his craft. He realized it, though, when a mass ground up against the boat, overturning it and throwing him into the chilly water. His gun, a Colt's breechloader, fell from his hand and went to the bottom of the river, and is likely to remain there. Boland had a hard fight, and when, after a desperate effort he succeeded in pulling himself upon the ice, he fell exhausted.

His danger was not past by any means, as he had no means of gaining the shore, and it was with a heart full of anxiety that he saw the distance between his ice raft and shore rapidly diminish, until seized by an eddy it whirled into the shoal water and he was safe.—Hartford Times.

An Airship to Cross the Ocean.

A remarkable experiment is going on not far from London in a pretty little Kentish town called Bexley. Here a party of American scientists and artisans are constructing an airship which is expected to cross the ocean in seven hours. The inventor, capitalists and workers are nearly all from Bridgeport, Conn., and are confident of success. By invitation I ran down there and saw a mysterious mass of metal and machinery, of which I could make nothing intelligible. I did see models, however, which rose from the table and flew around the interior of the great work room, describing circles and curves at the will of the sender.

If the complete ship does half as well as the model it will revolutionize the world. Every workman is sworn to absolute secrecy, and thus far little or no information as to what the mechanism is has reached the outside world. The superintendent is Hiram Maxim, an American inventor of ability. Next to him are Mr. House and his son, who are both endowed with high inventive talent.—Cor. Philadelphia Times.

Queer Electrical Mishap.

A queer accident befell a Portland woman last week. An electric light wire had sagged to the tinned roof of her house, and the current was conducted by the water conductor on the outside of the house to a trap in the cellar, thence by the waste pipe to a washstand on the second floor, thence by the water pipe to the street, so that when the lady put her hand on the faucet of the water pipe she couldn't let go. But luckily the wind was blowing, and, as the wires were electrified with but an intermittent current, so the lady was liberated after a few minutes' imprisonment and considerable suffering.—Lewiston Journal.

Joan on the Paris Stage.

Paris is to see "Joan of Arc" upon the stage once more. The town council has voted 2500 to bring out, at the Chatelet, Deputy Fabre's drama called after the national heroine. The stage manager, if he does justice to the play in providing fitting accessories, is to be rewarded with the Cross of the Legion of Honor, an honor which has been granted to M. Duquesnel, of the Porte Saint Martin, and M. Boncke, of the Hippodrome, for the intelligent pains they took in bringing out "Joan of Arc" at those places.—Cor. London News.

And More, Too.

The supreme court of this state has just decided a lawsuit begun twenty-one years ago, and having the title of a $2,500 farm. The lawyers have not only eaten up the farm, but all the contestants did take and a rape as well. The first bill in the suit would run about seven years longer, as the pay was steady and could be counted on.—Detroit Free Press.

A HAPPY New Year!

Farewell, 1890! Here's to 1891, and we wish all our customers and their friends a truly happy and prosperous New Year. Old 1890 saw us favored with a large Clothing trade and a splendid growth of our Merchant Tailoring establishment. For this we must thank our patrons, and solicit such a continuance of favors in the New Year as we deserve.

W. H. ECKHART,

CLOTHIER AND FURNISHER.

—Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bauer are visiting relatives and friends at Fremont, Ohio.

—Miss Jessie Pettit has returned from Zanesville, after three months' absence.

—Rev. and Mrs J. R. Downer left today to make a short visit with friends at Urbana.

—A. Stewart and daughter, Miss Luania, are at Kenton for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

—A few standard mail boxes may still be secured by calling at the postoffice. They are the essential thing to satisfactory mail delivery.

—Four sections of train 81 were sent out of the C. and E. yards here Tuesday afternoon. The extra sections were sent out in order to get rid of the large number of cars which had accumulated in the yards.

—One of the neatest kept offices about the railroads in this city is the Wells-Fargo express transfer office at the junction. The office is in charge of Jimmie Bouncer, and he keeps things as bright as a new dollar all the time.

—Local attorneys are quite unanimous in the opinion that Judge Seney's decision Tuesday in the habeas corpus case was the ablest document ever delivered in the local court. Mr. Seney occupied over an hour in the delivery, which was a thorough and masterly effort.

—From the Akron Beacon it is learned that Jacob Snyder, the architect of the new Epworth M. E. church here, died at his home at that place, Monday evening. Mr. Snyder died from the effects of a complicted disease contracted last February, at the age of 67 years. He was a prominent and honored citizen of Akron.

—Since the publication of the notice in regard to the new business college to be located in the Fisher block people have confounded it with the temporary business class that is in possession of the rooms at present. This is a mistaken idea, the new institution is to be permanent and one of the chain of Caton business colleges, with a capital stock of $100,000 to back it.

—The nominations for members of the Marion county Agricultural Board, from the following townships, will be held next Saturday: Marion, Montgomery, Big Island, Claridon, Richland, Pleasant, Prospect and Waldo. The election will be held on the Saturday following, Jan. 10th. The president, secretary and treasurer will hereafter be elected by the Board instead of members of the Society, as formerly.

B. P. O. Elks.

All members of Marion Lodge, No. 42, B. P. O. E. are requested to be present at our regular communication Thursday, Jan. 1st, 1891. Business of importance to be transacted.

By order of E. R.

WATCH STOLEN

A Bold Bad Thief Gets Away With a $60 Watch and Chain in Broad Daylight.

Miss Almira Lewis, daughter of J. J. Lewis, proprietor of the boarding house at the corner of West and South streets, opposite City Hall, lost a $60 watch and chain Tuesday, immediately after the dinner hour.

The thief was a young man, about five feet, ten inches in height, slim and with the merest vestige of a moustache. He applied at the Lewis house for board Tuesday forenoon, but was told that he could be accomodated only as a day boarder. He then went elsewhere and rented a room and returned for dinner, which he secured. After dinner, the fellow engaged board for a week, but he evidently did not intend to remain that long. Unobserved he walked into Mr. Lewis' bedroom, and with a key of his own opened a bureau drawer, extracted therefrom the watch and skipped.

Mr. Lewis made the discovery of the theft about ten minutes afterward, and at once informed Constable Jones and members of the police force, and a search was instituted but no trace of the thief was found.

The description of the man tallies with that of the thief who stole a watch from Mrs. Hatch's boarding house in a similar way about a year ago, and he is believed to be the same chap, who is making a business of that kind of work.

Blocked the Tracks.

The Big Four local crew, with an engine and cut of cars, were pulling out of a switch, just west of the junction Tuesday evening, and one of the trainmen shut the switch before the cars had all passed over, and the two rear cars were thrown from the track. The derailed cars not only blockaded their own tracks but also the Erie's, three of their trains being delayed about an hour by the wreck. A Big Four east bound passenger was due here at just that time and was obliged to get past the wreck over the C. and E.'s right-of-way. The cars were replaced on the rails again after about an hour's work and the rest of the wreck cleared with but little damage done, except the delaying of trains.

Will Close at Noon.

Tomorrow, "New Year's, the postoffice will be closed at 12 m., and will be open from 6 p. m. to 7 p. m. There will be one general delivery in the morning. The carriers' window will be open in the evening from 6 to 7 p. m.

S. FOGLESON, P. M.

Prohibitionists

Will meet at W. C. T. U. rooms, Marion, Friday evening, January 2d, A. D., 1891, at 7:30 p. m., to begin the campaign for 1891. All should be present.

A National Event.

The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nervine by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc It acts like a charm. Trial bottles and fine book on "Nervous and Heart Disease," with unequaled testimonials, free at Denison & Co's, and Huberman & Co's It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs

It has been observed that some of the men who are most concerned because there is not money enough to pay all the world's debts are least concerned about paying any part of their own.

FRASH'S DRY GOODS HOUSE

GOING TO QUIT BUSINESS!

Our lease expires in a few weeks, and, as we have determined to enter another line of business, there is no other course but to inaugurate the greatest Closing Out Sale of Dry Goods ever made in Marion. It commences at once.

Everything Must Go. Not an Article Held in Reserve!

LOOK WHAT AN OPPORTUNITY THIS IS.

Our stock is full, bought in anticipation of a large trade, and it was bought cheap, too. The time for closing out is too short to sell without sacrifice. The goods in every department must go at cost or less. It means a wonderful saving to buyers, a saving that will pay you to purchase for the future. These are not old goods, either, but the cleanest and newest Dry Goods stock in the city.

Come and Investigate--You Will Buy.

This is no advertising scheme. We are positively going to quit, and by early spring, too, and the $20,000 stock must go.

FRASH'S DRY GOODS HOUSE.

N. B.—All accounts must be settled at once. Those owing us are requested to call, and those, too, who hold accounts against John Frash or W. S. Frash are requested to bring them in.
